Dear Lyn:

The front cover of your November 21, 2002 catalog for the auction in St. Louis uses a photograph I had never seen before. It appears to be Farran Zerbe in front of his sales stall at the St. Louis World's Fair of 1904 when he was selling the Jefferson and McKinley commemorative gold dollars. The paper money hanging from the ceiling seems real.

Would you be nice enough to tell me where that picture comes from? I could not find it on the indices of the publications I have available. Who made the mirror image of the same scene on the back cover?

Thank you for any cooperation you can give me.

Thrive,

Eric P. Newman
